

Don't Gamble on Safety

How are you training your employees about the hazards and risks of their role?

A key, mandatory employment responsibility today is to provide and manage a Work Health and Safety (WHS) and Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) induction training program for all new employees, prior to commencement in their new role.

You can take advantage of a comprehensive course library of practical and industry specific WHS training modules.

The Benefits of a Drake WHS Induction Training Program:

- All course content is constantly updated, ensuring accurate information is being delivered to new employees.
- Each module is designed to be self-paced and is tailored to different learning styles.
- Choose from a wide variety of transparent and auditable reporting options.

This is a cost-effective solution for your business. Pricing as follows:

$22 per employee – up to 150 employees
$18 per employee – up to 250 employees

This is a one-off fee to access as many modules as you require over a 12 month period.

Modules Include:

- On-Hired Employment Safety
- Discrimination, Harassment and Bullying
- Office Worker Safety
- Manufacturing Worker Safety
- Store Worker Safety
- Working Alone
- Forklift Operator Safety
- Nursing Worker Safety
- Emergency Management in Nursing
- Construction Worker Safety
- Retail Worker Safety
- Hospitality Workers Safety

The following services are also available:

National Police History Check: $65/check*

International Police Checks: $43 – $285/check*

Ministry of Justice Checks (NZ residents): $12/check*

Visa Working Rights in Australia: Complimentary

Pricing excludes GST*

Contact Stephen Fletcher to book an Induction training program today!

WWW.DRAKESAFETY.COM.AU

SFLETCHER@AU.DRAKEINTL.COM

(07) 5555 0622

DRAKE
S A F E T Y