Whether you've made an online purchase or are a business with high volume freight needs, dealing with transport is often coupled with frustrations. Using multiple carriers and their systems has made the process almost unbearable without considering the time and cost it takes to execute a simple task.

Do you really know how layered your current supply chain is? Would it surprise you to know that you booked your job with a company who has outsourced it to another company? Why should you pay for layers of margins?

Join SCLAA at this event and find out about new cutting edge crowd based transportation solution that can efficiently resolve your regular issues such as PODs availability, traceability and other.

Presenter

Michael Holden, Director, Bustle Supply

Michael acted in a number of senior management roles in leading WA logistics companies. In 2015 he has stepped out of his last role in transport, Terminal Manager LSSG and became a business owner. One of Michael's businesses is an innovative transport solution Bustle.
