Wednesday, 21 June 2017

When: Wednesday, 21 June 2017

What: Come and visit Clipex to see how a revolutionary 'modular' stock-handling system is received from manufacturers, stocked and retailed to agricultural customers here and overseas, and how a cloud-based business system adapted to enable a growth so rapid that the specs evolved faster than the system could be built. Clipex is a powerful case study in how a successful concept can be created, distributed and grown rapidly... and can either hindered or helped by the business systems that support it.
