Australia's workplace relations system is highly regulated, so how are employers supposed to keep up with so many rules and regulations? An accidental breach of the law can cost hundreds of thousands, after even the smallest of mistakes.

To help you manage your staff and compliance, so you can stay focused on running your business, we are holding a member's exclusive webinar with Employsure, Australia's leading workplace relations specialists.

Join us for this online event to learn about:

- The Fair Work Act and Modern Awards
- The top compliance fundamentals to avoid workplace claims
- The employment contracts and policies you should implement
- Practical tips to apply to your business to remain Fair Work compliant

Register today! - Don't miss this fantastic opportunity to better educate yourself on the Fair Work Act and how to implement changes to your business. (All registrants will receive a copy of the recording.)
