

SCLAA NSW - WEBINAR

How to create your best ever (perfect?) resume?

Wednesday, 18 September 2019

12.30pm - 1.10pm (AEST) and 6.30pm to 7.10pm (AEST)

As a follow-up to the recent National Skills Crisis event the SCLAA is also keen to further assist members and non-members, job holders, seekers and employers by offering a webinar which will assist people to create compelling (or their perfect?) resumes when applying for a new role no matter what their current situation.

Seeking a new role? Looking for a career change in Supply Chain or Logistics? We can help you to create your perfect resume.

- Are you in warehousing, manufacturing, transport, administration, managing people or enabling operations?
- Are you seeking a change, needing a refresh, actively seeking new opportunities or just not getting the interviews?
- Don't fit into any of these categories, just need some resume creation assistance?

REGISTER
BELOW

Then this webinar is for you!

Presenter: Tom Hannemann

Tom has been helping people advance their careers since 1993 by developing their resumes into documents that enable them to succeed in competitive job markets. He works with people from all backgrounds in just about every industry across pretty much every occupation and profession.

Tom's early career was in human resources roles with various Australian Government agencies, followed by a 10 year period as a management consultant where he worked with senior executives across a diverse range of organisations and industries. He has a degree majoring in biology and psychology from Flinders University and a Master of Business Administration from the University of Melbourne.

Register for:
12.30pm to 1.10pm

OR

Register for:
6.30pm to 7.10pm

Members: No Charge Non-Members: $25.00

REGISTRATIONS CLOSE: Monday, 16 September 2019