

SOLAS Verified Export Container Weights ...Are You Ready?

From 1 July 2016, container exporters must declare a Verified Gross Mass (VGM) before containers will be loaded onto ships for export. Weight measurement standards will need to be met.

- Do you understand the new regulatory requirements?
- Have you assessed your export supply chain and information exchange processes to ensure compliance?
- How will the new export VGM requirements interact with other regulatory obligations for the safe carriage of containers by road & rail?
- Are you and your supply chain partners ready?

The Forums will provide valuable landside logistics feedback to the Australian Maritime Safety Authority (AMSA) on the Australian Regulations.
